I chose the Guelph MA Leadership Program

because it offered a distinctive combination that fit my career and personal life perfectly — a strong international reputation, a focus on collaboration and the work-study flexibility.

The knowledge and insight I gained has contributed directly to my work at the Toronto Police Service and has helped me grow as a person as well.

I started at Guelph in 2007, and it didn't take long for the program to start paying off in my career advancement. The flexible format allowed me to continue working full time. It was grueling, but so worth it.

The MA Leadership Program is a really great investment – an appreciating asset with a very high ROI. I am certain that I will carry with me the lessons I have learned, and the friendships I have made, well into the future.
