

Guelph Health and History Workshop

March 12 2016

University of Guelph, McKinnon Building Rm 132

<http://www.uoguelph.ca/campus/map/mackinnon/>

09:00-10:00

Martin Dribe (Lund), David Hacker (Minnesota) and Francesco Scalone (Bologna)

Immigration and the Health of Children: Lessons from the United States at the turn of the 20th Century

10:15-11:15

Rick Steckel (OSU)

Income Growth and Diabetes from the Perspective of the Fetal Origins Hypothesis

11:15-12:15

Bertie Lumey (Columbia)

Impact of Famine In Utero and Early Childhood on Adult Height (Netherlands 1944)

Lunch

13:15-14:15

Shari Eli (Toronto), Laura Salisbury (York) and Allison Shertzer (Pittsburgh)

The Long-Run Effects of Losing the Civil War: Evidence from Border States

14:15-15:30

Hamish Maxwell-Stewart (Tasmania)

Transported Convicts and Their Grandchildren