

Study and Development Fellowship Recipients, 2012-13

The Provost's office is pleased to announce the recipients of 2012-2013 Study and Development Fellowships.

This program, developed in cooperation with CUPE 3913, is offered in recognition of the scholarly contribution of long-serving Sessional Lecturers to teaching and pedagogy.

2012-2013 Award Winners are (in alphabetical order):

Dr. Lee L'Clerc, School of Languages and Literatures, College of Arts

Dr. Charlotte McCallum, Department of Geography, College of Social and Applied Human Sciences

Dr. Anneke Olthof, Department of Psychology, College of Social and Applied Human Sciences

Through this Fellowship support, the Sessional Lecturers will develop innovations in pedagogy in areas such as distance education learning, the teaching of critical thinking skills, and interdisciplinary approaches to emerging fields like bioremediation.

We sincerely thank all applicants for their interest in this program and once again congratulate all of the recipients.
