Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers

2018-2019 Study and Development Fellowships

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2018-2019 Study and Development Fellowships. This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

We would like to congratulate the 2018-2019 Fellowship awardees:

- Linda Chiasson, Marketing & Consumer Studies, will be engaged in a Course redesign to include current business scenarios that raise legal issues and update materials relevant to various “real life” business scenarios (F18)
- Anna Cox, School of Fine Arts and Music. Topic: Outta Sight: Considering the cultural intersections and consequences of popular photography (Anna will produce a Podcast and participate in a week-long workshop) (F18)
- Nanita Mohan, Political Science. Topic: “The Blended Course Offering: An Interdisciplinary and Multi-Formatted Approach to Course Development” (F18)
- Jeffrey O’leary, Marketing & Consumer Studies. Topic: The Transition from Sustaining to Disruptive Technologies: An Industry Assessment (collection of case studies) (W19)
- Deidre Rose, Sociology and Anthropology, will finish a book, The Sessional Trap: Notes from the Continuously Contingent (S19)
- Ted Warren, School of Fine Arts and Music, will engage in the study of improvisation/harmony/chords and scales with 5 experts in the field (F18)

Through the 2018-2019 academic year, Study/Development Fellowships recipients will be engaged in a range of exciting scholarly activities which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs.
