Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers

2019-2020 Study and Development Fellowships

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2019-2020 Study and Development Fellowships. This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

We would like to congratulate this year's Fellowship awardees:

- Amanda Hooykaas. Geography, Environment and Geomatics, College of Social & Applied Human Sciences. Amanda's fellowship activities will include completing the revisions necessary to submit and publish three peer-reviewed journal articles (W20).
- Anneke Olthof. Department of Psychology, College of Social & Applied Human Sciences. Anneke's fellowship activities will include revisions of the introductory psychology class with a particular emphasis on making better use of on-line assessment mechanisms, the development of video supplements to the course material, and the development of in-class assessments and demonstrations (F19).
- Jason Wilson, Department of History, College of Arts. Jason's fellowship proposal is entitled: "Song, Story, Drawing & Dance: A Multi-Disciplinary Research Proposal" (F19).

Through the 2019-2020 academic year, Study/Development Fellowships recipients will be engaged in a range of exciting scholarly activities which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs.
