

Fellowship Recipients

Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers

2022-2023 Study and Development Fellowships

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2022-2023 Study and Development Fellowships. This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

We would like to congratulate this year's Fellowship awardees:

- Sierra Dye. History, College of Arts. Sierra plans to publish a monograph and a scholarly chapter on speech, gender, and law in early modern Scotland's witch-hunts. (F22)
- Caroline Fabbruzzo. Early Childhood Studies, University of Guelph-Humber. Caroline proposes to foster a culture of collaboration among faculty of the ECS program by awakening them to the benefits of collaboration in a higher education setting. (F22)
- Michael Follert (Sociology and Anthropology, College of Social and Applied Human Sciences. Michael will use the fellowship to support research in comparing English-speaking Canadians and Americans in their use of conventions of im/politeness in interactions with strangers. (W23)
- Greg Kelley. Media and Communication Studies, University of Guelph-Humber. Greg is designing a comprehensive study of storytelling about parrots, and even by parrots. (F22)
- Justine Tishinsky. Human Health and Nutritional Sciences, College of Biological Science. Justine plans to embed strategies into teaching practice that better support equity, diversity, and inclusion. (F22)
- Mandy Wintink. Psychology, University of Guelph-Humber. Mandy aims to develop expertise in the gamification of education and to disseminate these methods and the results of gamification. (F22)
- Yussif Yakubu. Philosophy, College of Arts. Yussif plans to conduct further research into and publish on the evolutionary roots of social bigotry. (W23)

Through the 2022-2023 academic year, Study/Development Fellowships recipients will be engaged in a range of exciting scholarly activities which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs. For information on eligibility and application process, please visit the Study and Development Fellowships program webpage. If you still have questions, please contact Faculty and Academic Staff Relations at fellows@uoguelph.ca.