Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers

2023-2024 Study and Development Fellowships

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2023-2024 Study and Development Fellowships. This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

We would like to congratulate this year's Fellowship awardees:

- Carol-Anne Hendry. Psychology, College of Social and Applied Human Sciences. Carol-Anne plans to further her understanding and application of Interpersonal Neurobiology (IPNB), a multidisciplinary field that integrates neuroscience, psychology, and interpersonal dynamics. (F23)
- Evren Altinkas. History, College of Arts. Evren plans to add non-Western sources to the reading list for student by translating the articles written in German and Turkish into English to advance the course outcomes. (F23)
- Nitin Deckha. Justice Studies, University of Guelph-Humber. Nitin will use the fellowship to explore what types of learning activities and course assessment can help nurture the World Economic Forum's top 10 skills. (F23)
- Richard deLaat. Chemistry, College of Engineering and Physical Sciences. Richard plans to research the incorporation of indigenous perspectives to the teaching of chemistry. (F23)
- Scott Brown. Environmental Design and Rural Development, Ontario Agricultural College. Scott plans to research geography and process literature. (F23)
- Susan Dupej. Hospitality, Food and Tourism Management. Susan aims to research the cannabis tourism industry. (F23)

Through the 2023-2024 academic year, Study/Development Fellowships recipients will be engaged in a range of exciting scholarly activities which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs.
