violence. The Parties do not condone behaviour that is contrary to the Human Rights Code, this Agreement, the University's Workplace Harassment Prevention Policy, or the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

- 9.2 The Employer and Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, harassment, or violence against Employees with respect to terms and conditions of employment and/or participation in the University community, including by reason of disability, gender identity, gender expression, sex (including, without limitation, pregnancy or breastfeeding), gender, sexual orientation, race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, age, marital status, family status, political affiliation or belief or practice, record of offences (unless the Employee's record of offences is a reasonable and bona fide qualification because of the nature of employment), membership in the Union, or any ground prohibited by the Ontario Human Rights Code, 1990 as amended.

Harassment may be either subtle or blunt and may include verbal or physical abuse, jokes, slurs, graffiti, pejorative or demeaning names, hate group activity, or ostracism.

Personal conduct or behaviour also constitutes harassment, whether or not it is based on prohibited grounds set out in this Article, when it creates an intimidating, demeaning or hostile working environment.

Abuse of authority also constitutes harassment and occurs when an individual improperly uses the power and authority inherent in their position to endanger an Employee's job, undermine the Employee's ability to perform that job, threaten the economic livelihood of the Employee, or in any way interfere with or negatively influence the career of the Employee. Performance assessment and performance management are not abuse of authority.

- 9.5 The Parties agree to a definition of workplace sexual harassment as follows:
- a. A course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, where the course or course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome; or Sexual harassment will not be permitted by any agent or employee of the University towards any other employee, student or visitor.

- 9.6 The Parties agree to a definition of workplace violence as follows: Any incident in which an Employee is threatened, coerced, abused, or sustains physical, emotional, or psychological harm or injury in, at, or related to the workplace.

It is expected that Employees or the Union on their behalf will report incidents of workplace violence to their immediate supervisor or, as appropriate, the next level of supervision (and/or, Campus Police as specific circumstances dictate) and, as necessary, file an incident report detailing the incident including any directly related damage to property. Such reported incidents will be investigated, as appropriate to the circumstance, by the Employer. The outcome of such an investigation will be communicated to the Union. If the complaint is not resolved to the satisfaction of the member or the Union, a Formal Grievance may be filed.

- 9.7 There shall be no retaliation or threat of retaliation against an Employee who, on the basis of reasonable belief, reports wrongdoing by any member of the campus community, or who gives information or evidence in relation to the reported wrongdoing.
- 9.8 The Parties agree that matters of discrimination, harassment, or violence can be particularly serious, and thus such allegations shall be addressed as such.
- 9.9 An Employee may elect to submit a Grievance alleging harassment under the Collective Agreement or to file a complaint under the University's Human Rights Policy (Policy as Approved by Board of Governors June 3, 2016). However, the grievance process (per the Collective Agreement) and complaint process (per The University's Human Rights Policy) will not normally run concurrently.
- a. An Employee who elects to file a Grievance under the Collective Agreement shall, if they wish, also have access to the mediation process in the University's Human Rights Policy prior to Step 1 of the grievance procedure and may be accompanied by a Union representative during the process, if they choose. An Employee may withdraw from the mediation process at any time and resume the grievance process.
 - b. Policy shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union representative at any stage of the process.
- 9.10 No discrimination, intimidation, restraint, or coercion shall be exercised or practiced by any supervisor with respect to any Employee.
- 9.11 The parties agree that information and training with respect to workplace violence is essential in promoting a safe and security-conscious work environment and will work jointly to continue to enhance efforts in this regard.

Article 10 – Joint Union Management Committee

- 10.1 There shall be a Joint Union-Management Committee (JUMC) consisting of three (3) Bargaining Unit representatives appointed by the Union and three (3) representatives from within the University appointed by the Employer.
- 10.2 The purpose of the Committee is to review matters of mutual interest arising from the application of this Collective Agreement and to foster communications and co-operation between the parties, but the Committee shall not have the power to deal with any matters which are the subject of a current Grievance or the subject of current negotiations.
- 10.3 The JUMC shall function in an advisory capacity only, making recommendations to the Union and/or the Employer with respect to its discussions and conclusions, and shall not have the power to add to or modify the terms of this agreement.
- 10.4 The JUMC shall function as a forum in which the Employer and the Union shall advise each other of anticipated trends or policy changes, of which either may be aware, which may have an impact on the Bargaining Unit.
- 10.5 The JUMC shall meet whenever the need arises, but in any event, at least once every four (4) months.
- 10.6 The JUMC shall have Co-Chairpersons appointed by the respective Parties. Each Co-Chairperson will be responsible on alternate occasions for convening and chairing meetings of the JUMC.
- 10.7 The Party requesting a meeting is responsible for calling for agenda items, preparing the agenda, establishing topics to be discussed, and providing the other Party with any relevant documents which may facilitate discussion.
- 10.8 Minutes of each meeting of the JUMC shall be prepared by the Employer and distributed to all JUMC members at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the next meeting.

Article 11 – Duties and Responsibilities

- 11.1 Upon appointment, an Employee and their Faculty Supervisor shall convene a meeting to discuss the duties and expectations of the appointment and the Employee's career objectives. Subsequent such meetings shall occur at least once per year, if requested by the Employee.
- 11.2 Employees are required to adhere to University policies and Senate regulations. Where there is a conflict between policies of the University and regulations of the Senate, the provisions of the Collective Agreement shall apply.
- 11.3 No Employee shall be required by the Employer to perform duties that are not related to the research and training program for which the Employee has been hired.
- 11.4 With the consent of the University Senate, Postdoctoral Scholars may be allowed to serve on the committees of or to co-advise graduate students. If requested, an Employee's Faculty Supervisor shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate such supervision.

Article 12 – Academic Freedom

12.1 The Parties acknowledge that the common good of society depends upon the search for knowledge and its free exposition. Academic Freedom in universities is essential to both of these purposes, and in the scholarly pursuits of teaching and research. Academic Freedom does not require neutrality on the part of the individual nor does it preclude commitment on the part of the individual. Rather, Academic Freedom makes such commitment possible. The Parties recognize that universities are communities in which the right to criticize all aspects of society is valued and respected.

12.2 Within the limits noted in this Article, the University accepts its responsibilities to Employees in upholding their right to academic freedom.

Academic Freedom is defined as the freedom to undertake the following without fear of institutional censorship:

- a. the pursuit of research, creative and scholarly activities, and publishing or making public the results thereof;
- b. the ability to teach and discuss, in public or private forums;
- c. the creation or performance of works of art;
- d. freedom in service to the University, discipline, or community through the application of professional or academic skills; and
- e. the ability to speculate and comment, criticize and express divergent opinions, without deference to prescribed doctrine (subject to the Ontario Human Rights Code and the University of Guelph Human Rights Policy and Procedures document).

12.3 The Parties agree an Employee's freedom to pursue their own direction of research will vary according to individual supervisor/employee arrangements as specified in the letter of appointment and in keeping with traditions across disciplines.

12.4 Each Employee has a right to Academic Freedom within the framework of the research program of the Faculty Supervisor, and a responsibility to conduct their research within this framework responsibly and with integrity in accordance with the University of Guelph Responsible Conduct of Research Policy and Procedures and the University of Guelph Policy Statement on Freedom of Expression.

12.5 Where a Postdoctoral Scholar is teaching a course they accept their responsibility for completing delivery of the course with due regard for any and all Province of Ontario laws, University of Guelph policies and procedures, provisions of this Collective Agreement, and all University-identified limitations in course design, content, and methods for delivery. The Employer shall identify those policies and procedures that are applicable to Employees.

- 12.6 Where a Postdoctoral Scholar is teaching a course, subject to 12.5, when a course's objectives, content and delivery are fully and carefully prescribed by the Employer, employees shall responsibly and completely fulfill delivery of said course as prescribed. In prescribing such objectives, content and delivery, the Employer shall also provide the training, workplace facilities and support services that, after consultation with the Employee, it deems both essential and necessary.
- 12.7 Academic Freedom does not confer legal immunity, nor does it diminish the obligations of Employees to meet their duties and responsibilities to the University.
- 12.8 In their capacity as a researcher and scholar, an Employee shall not purport to represent the views of the Employer unless so authorized.
- 12.9 The exercise of Academic Freedom as per this Article shall not be grounds for disciplinary proceedings.

Article 13 - Correspondence and Information

- 13.1 All regular correspondence between the Parties arising out of or incidental to this Agreement, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall pass between the President of the Union, the Union Local Unit Chair and the AVP FASR. Such correspondence may either be delivered directly, be forwarded through the University's internal postal service, and/or be sent via email. For purposes of administering this Collective Agreement, wherever representatives of either Party are referred to, it is understood that a designated representative may be recognized and dealt with in their stead.

- 13.4 The confidentiality of data about individuals shall be respected by the Union, which shall use the information only to contact members of the Bargaining Unit.

13.5 The Employer shall provide to the Union the following information within one month of the information becoming available to the body or agent that normally receives the information, unless a different time is specified below. This requirement may be satisfied by publication of the following information on a University website to which the Union has access:

- a. when they have been approved by the Board, the University's annual audited financial statement and semesterly reports of the University, including all appendices, supplements and ancillary documents;

- f. such other information as may be set out elsewhere in this Agreement.

13.6 The Union agrees to provide the Employer with the following information:

- a. a list of all persons authorized to represent the Union to the Employer, updated within one week of any change;
- b. a list of the officers and other members of the Executive Committee of the Union, within one month of such membership being established;
- c. a copy of each Union newsletter or bulletin, at the time of issuance to Members, if and when the Union should choose to create such a document;
- d. a copy of the current Constitution and Bylaws of the Union, as amended from time to time; and
- e. such other information as may be set out elsewhere in this Agreement.

This information may be provided in whole or in part by publication on the Union's public website.

13.6 It is agreed that there may be additional information needs identified between the Parties. Such additional needs will be discussed through the Joint Union-Management Committee (JUMC) and the Parties will attempt to mutually agree on what information is required and the dates on which such information might be provided.

13.7 Upon written request, the Employer agrees to make available to the Union Employer-wide written rules, policies, practices, procedures and regulations directly related to the employment of Bargaining Unit members or the working conditions between the Employer and the Employees.

13.8 When an Agreement has been signed, the Employer shall post the text of the Agreement on its website and, upon request, shall provide Employees with a printed copy of the Agreement.

13.9 Dated Written Communications

- a. Dated written communications required under this Agreement, unless otherwise specified, shall be sent to the recipient's University email address. - 16.17 Nothing precludes either Party from requesting that issues move immediately to higher stages commensurate with their deemed gravity or importance, but no issue would move directly to an external third-party without having been considered and discussed, in good faith, by the Union and Employer.

Informal Resolution

- 16.18 The Employer and the Union mutually agree that it is the desire of the Parties that differences in the interpretation, application, administration, and alleged violations of this Agreement shall be dealt with as quickly as is reasonably possible. The parties encourage disputes to be resolved by informal, timely discussion.
- 16.19 It is the right of Employees, with the assistance of a Union representative if they so wish, to seek to resolve disputes through informal discussion with the Employer and/or Faculty Supervisor, provided that such informal discussion shall not in any way prejudice any dispute resolution procedures set out in this Agreement, unless a resolution has been reached.
- 16.20 If an Employee has a complaint/dispute that may give rise to a Grievance, they and/or a Union designate shall, except where 16.17 applies, first discuss the matter at a meeting arranged for this purpose with the Faculty Supervisor, or relevant supervisory designate, and may also include a representative from Faculty and Academic Staff Relations (FASR) or designate. The meeting shall be held within twenty (20) business days after the Employee would reasonably be expected to have become aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint/dispute.

16.21 The relevant supervisor from 16.20 shall be allowed ten (10) business days to seek information and advice and to communicate a proposed resolution. If the resolution is agreed upon by all Parties, then a copy of the agreed-upon resolution, signed by the Employee, the Supervisor, and the Union, will be forwarded to the Employee, Executive Officer of the Union, or designate, and to the Faculty and Academic Staff Relations Office, or designate.

Failing an immediate settlement, the Department Chair will render a written decision to the Employee within fifteen (15) business days of the date of hearing.

16.25 Failing resolution of the grievance during the formal stage, the Union may submit a grievance to arbitration (an external third-Party) as hereinafter provided within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the formal grievance decision.

- 17.5 The Arbitrator shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to, or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 17.6 Any Arbitrator shall have the power to hear any arguments as to whether, in order to avoid consideration of substantive issues, time limits set forth in the grievance procedure have been unreasonably enforced. The Arbitrator may decide to deal with the case placed before him/her where the time deficiency is minor.
- 17.7 The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the parties.
- 17.8 The time limits imposed in this Article by the foregoing provisions may be amended by the Parties upon agreement.

- 18.8 The Employer will remove from an Employee's personnel file verbal or written warnings after twelve (12) months, and suspensions discipline after twenty-four (24) months, since the date of issue of the warning or discipline, or termination of the postdoctoral appointment (whichever occurs first), unless the Employee has a subsequent warning for an offence during that period.
