FRHD*4190 Course Name
COURSE OUTLINE – FALL 2018

1. CALENDAR DESCRIPTION
This course provides an examination and critique of current methods of assessing older adults. Tools to be considered include those for assessing dementia, depression, and pain. Students will examine diagnostic criteria that form the underpinnings of most tests and then examine each test for its psychometric properties and appropriate use. An understanding of the ethical principles governing assessment will be gained.
Credit Weight: 0.5 credits
Course Hours: 2-2 (24 lecture; 24 lab/seminar)
Pre-Requisite(s): FRHD 2060
Co-Requisites(s):
Restriction(s): Semester 7 and above

2. COURSE DESCRIPTION
In your future careers as gerontologists and specialists in human and family development, you may be asked to provide an assessment of an older person’s cognitive, emotional and social functioning. Even more likely, you may be asked to interpret the findings of assessments carried out by other professionals in order to make a decision about the kind of assistance an older person might require.
This course, then, has four purposes:
1. To examine the kinds of bio/pyscho/social disorders, disabilities and differences that may lead to a request for assessment of older adults.
2. To develop competence and critical thinking around the assessment process for older adults.
3. To embed a strengths based-orientation, concern for the worth and dignity, and an appreciation of the context of older adults and their families into the assessment process and personal assessment skills.
4. To explore and analyze the available assessment techniques for older adults and where appropriate, to provide instruction in how to select and administer to a test and in how to interpret the findings.
Course format: This course is made up of weekly seminar style lectures and labs that focus on skill development, applied learning and teamwork. Students will be expected to come to class having completed background research that will lead to weekly discussion. Using a ‘flipped classroom’ puts the onus on students to guide discussion. Regular worksheets will be provided to guide you through this process and are intended to foster analytic thinking about the assessment process in late life and to provide foundational knowledge about key assessment resources. Class discussions and labs will build on required readings, lectures, case studies and student presentations.

3. TIMETABLE

Office hours available on appointment.
Note: Above is an outline of the scheduling of class time for our lectures and labs. This is intended to be an iterative schedule, recognizing as it currently stands is ambitious and asks a lot of students. Our discussions will be fluid and will cater to the needs and interests of the class and scheduling may be revised to accommodate new interest, guest speakers, and areas requiring additional attention. Students will have the opportunity to shape the focus of their learning by providing input on topics of interest. Additional scheduling details will be posted on CourseLink throughout the semester.

Territorial Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that the University of Guelph resides on the ancestral lands of the Attawandaron people and the treaty lands and territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. We recognize the significance of the Dish with One Spoon Covenant to this land and offer our respect to our Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee and Métis neighbours as we strive to strengthen our relationships with them. Today, this gathering place is home to many First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples and acknowledging them reminds us of our important connection to this land where we learn and work.

9. COURSE STATEMENTS

Course Website:
There is a course website at http://courselink.uoguelph.ca. All components of this course will be housed on the CourseLink site including this course outline, assignments, and links to further resources. Your assignments will be submitted through the Dropbox function. Marks and feedback will also be released on the site. Please familiarize yourself with this website as soon as possible and visit it regularly throughout the semester.

Late Assignments:
Late assignments will be accepted up to 5 days following the due date and will receive a penalty of 10% per day EXCEPT under documented grounds for compassionate consideration. Assignments submitted more than one week late without documented grounds will receive a grade of zero. If you are going to hand an assignment in late, you must contact your course instructor to inform them when you will be submitting your assignment.

Receipt of Grades:
After you receive a grade on CourseLink, please review your feedback. Any inquiry or dispute over the grade must be made within two weeks from the date they are posted. If you fail to protest any grade during this time limit, changes to the grade will not be considered. Grades will be based on the Grading Procedures outlined in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Turnitin Software:
In this course, your instructor will be using Turnitin, integrated with the CourseLink Dropbox tool, to detect possible plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration or copying as part of the ongoing efforts to maintain academic integrity at the University of Guelph.

All submitted assignments will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of such papers. Use of the Turnitin.com service is subject to the Usage Policy posted on the Turnitin.com site.

A major benefit of using Turnitin is that students will be able to educate and empower themselves in preventing academic misconduct. In this course, you may screen your own assignments through Turnitin as many times as you wish before the due date. You will be able to see and print reports that show you exactly where you have properly and improperly referenced the outside sources and materials in your assignment.

10. UNIVERSITY STATEMENTS

E-mail Communication:
As per university regulations, all students are required to check their <uoguelph.ca> e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

When You Cannot meet a course requirement:
When you find yourself unable to meet in-course requirements due to illness or compassionate reasons, please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing with name, ID#, and email contact. See the undergraduate calendar for information on regulations and procedures for Academic Consideration.

Drop date:
Courses that are one semester long must be dropped by the end of the fortieth class day; two-semester courses must be dropped by the last day of the add period in the second semester. The regulations and procedures for Dropping Courses are available in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Copies of out-of-class assignments:
Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.
Accessibility:
The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required, however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance, and not later than the 40th Class Day.

More information: www.uoguelph.ca/sas

Academic misconduct:
The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community — faculty, staff, and students — to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Recording of materials:
Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

Resources:
The Academic Calendars are the source of information about the University of Guelph’s procedures, policies and regulations which apply to undergraduate, graduate and diploma programs.
