We address the questions the supplier has during the debriefing process. What if they have more questions after debriefing? What is the process?

The Supplier has 60 days after the Award Notification to request debriefing. During the debriefing, supplier's questions and issues in relation to their submission will be addressed.

If suppliers are not satisfied with debriefing, they can file bid dispute notice within 10 business days following debriefing according to the University's FP2.3.31 Bid Dispute Resolution Procedure Rev. June 1 2012.
