

Procurement Planning

The identification of a business need triggers the start of an entire procurement process, starting from procurement planning.

Define Needs

Accessibility Consideration

Request for Information

Plan Financials

Obtain Budget Approval

Select Purchasing Process

Consulting Services

Low Value Goods & Non-Consulting Services

High Value Goods & Non-Consulting Services

Goods Required for Special Authority Approval

Determine Sourcing Method

Informal Quotes

Request For Proposal

Request for Quotation

Request for Tender

Source URL: <https://www.uoguelph.ca/finance/procurement-planning>
