
COVID-19 Commiunication with Courier Partners

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, starting Tuesday March 17th, the University of Guelph has instructed many of our employees to work from home. As a result, the shipping and receiving operations at some departments of the University might be affected. This could include receiving docks may be closed, receiving hours may be shortened, or there is limited personnel handling receiving.

It is important to know that, while some of our buildings and offices may not be accessible, the University's following departments/locations are operating as normal. We are working on a list of buildings and locations on our Guelph main campus that are still open for deliveries during business hours and will provide that list to you as soon as it becomes available.

Meantime, we are requiring that in cases where a package is undeliverable, please hold the package in your local depot and contact purchasing.helpdesk@uoguelph.ca [1]. Please provide the package's waybill information as detailed as you can, such as shipper/receiver contact, tracking number, one of our standby team members will respond with an alternative delivery location as soon as we can.

We thank you for your patience during this time. If you have any questions, please reach out to purchasing.helpdesk@uoguelph.ca [1].
