

Jason Jurchuk

Jason Jurchuk is the Operations Manager and part owner of Henry's Tempeh Inc. He has been an integral part of developing and executing Henry's Tempeh's strategic direction and ongoing operations for the past 3 years.

After graduating from Robotics and Automation at Conestoga College in 2008, Jason went on to work in the automation field for 7 years. In 2015, Jason joined the team at Henry's Tempeh and quickly assumed part ownership in the company.

With an interest in research and innovation, Jason is constantly seeking out ways to improve efficiency in the shop. Working collaboratively with local colleges and universities, Jason has spearheaded several research projects seeking to advance Henry's Tempeh's product quality and daily operations.

Since joining the company, Henry's Tempeh has seen double digit growth resulting in a move to a larger facility. In their current Kitchener location, Henry's Tempeh has become HACCP certified and continues to grow as interest in plant-based protein becomes more mainstream. Finally, Jason is, self-proclaimed, most handsome of all three owners and KNOWS he can do THIRTEEN full push-ups IN A ROW with only 2 breaks. Jason is one of five employees that make up the small but mighty team at Henry's Tempeh.
