

Steven Salm

Steven Salm has been impacting the landscape of Toronto's hospitality industry since he moved from New York in 2010. He has successfully opened over 20 restaurants throughout the USA and Canada. Through his experience, Salm wholeheartedly understands what it takes to gain success in the industry. His sincere, thoughtful and educated demeanour along with his genuine approach has led to a vast following among guests and colleagues. As President of Chase Hospitality Group, Salm drives a vision to redefine hospitality through sustainability initiatives, introducing three entirely plant-based restaurants and providing unforgettable guest experiences at his eight restaurants, along with a national restaurant partnership with Holt Renfrew. In 2017, Salm was recognized as one of Toronto Life's Top 50 Most Influential People.
