- Your résumé

Uniterra maintains a list of Leave for Change positions on their web site. Please click on the map under the heading "Discover our Available Positions" to see a small sample of volunteer assignments and review them. These positions represent just a small percentage of the skills and knowledge from which Uniterra's local partner organizations could benefit. If you do not see a position that matches your skill set, do not be discouraged. Consider the skills and knowledge you have from work, volunteer, and other experiences (e.g. facilitation & training, additional languages you speak, areas of expertise) and apply anyway. In your cover letter, please include the professional skills that you think you could contribute. If you are selected for an interview, the L4C Program Manager will provide you with additional informational about the possible positions that would match your skills and experience.

If you have questions about the application process or about the volunteer experience, you can connect with a past participant, or email Human Resources.

Pre-departure Orientation
Successful candidates must attend a mandatory two-day pre-departure training and orientation session. The session is run Uniterra and the Centre for Intercultural Learning. This session typically occurs in Toronto. The orientation is critical to participants, as it includes cultural protocol, what to expect, oversea resources, expectations of your volunteer role, and other vital information for your volunteer trip.

Volunteer Assignment (3-4 weeks)
The timing of your volunteer assignment will be determined by your availability and the schedule of the partner organization with whom you will volunteer.

Debrief with Uniterra & Human Resources
As a means to continuously ask for feedback and evaluation, we have a debriefing for each participant, one month after return to Canada.

Public Engagement Activities
Participants are asked to give back to the University by sharing their Leave for Change experiences with the University community during and after their volunteer experience. In the past, participants have blogged about their experiences while they were abroad. Some participants have also created photo displays, presentations, and talks. You can share your Leave for Change experiences however you wish.
