Occupational Hygiene and Safety

The Occupational Hygiene and Safety Group provide occupational hygiene and safety services to support University Operations in meeting its goal of providing safe workspaces and facilities for students, faculty, staff and visitors. This includes health and safety programs, training, guidance on regulatory compliance and best practices, workplace exposure assessments, job safety analyses, incident investigations and safety inspections.

The University's Manager of Occupational Hygiene and Safety (Vacant)

The University's Occupational Hygienist, Rachel Pinto may be contacted by email [1] or by phone at 519 824 4120 ext. 54855

The University’s Safety Specialist, Jeff Dafoe may be contacted by email [2] or by phone at 519 824 4120 ext. 52524

Occupational Hygiene Services Areas include:

- Chemical Exposure monitoring
- Designated Substances
- Hearing Loss Prevention [3]
- Indoor Air Quality
- Mould Control
- Respiratory Protection
- Sun Safety [4]
- Working in Cold Environments [5]
- Working in Hot Environments [6]

Safety Services Areas include:

- Asbestos Management [7]
- Confined Spaces
- Contractor Management
- Elevated Work Platforms
- Freight Elevator Handling
- Fume Hood Re-Certification
- Ladder Safety
- Lifting Devices
- Lock Out Tag Out
- Machine Shop Safety [3]
- Restricted Spaces
- Working at Heights

Source URL: https://www.uoguelph.ca/hr/hr-services-environmental-health-safety-programs/occupational-hygiene

Links
[1] http://rpinto@uoguelph.ca
[2] http://jdafoe@uoguelph.ca
[3] https://www.uoguelph.ca/hr/about-hr/environmental-health-safety-ehs/ehs-guidelines
[4] https://www.uoguelph.ca/hr/sun-safety
[5] https://www.uoguelph.ca/hr/working-cold-environments
[6] https://www.uoguelph.ca/hr/working-hot-environments