ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT REPORT FORM INSTRUCTIONS

The University of Guelph Academic Misconduct policy applies to both undergraduate and graduate students however the process for investigation differs. When completing this form, determine the degree status of the student being reported and then proceed as described here.

1. Undergraduate Students:

- The course instructor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- If you are a teaching assistant and suspect a student has committed academic misconduct, forward your concerns to the course instructor along with any supporting documentation, such as a copy of the student's assignment or examination. You may provide a written report to the course instructor if you so wish.
- The course instructor should forward the completed form and all requested documentation to the chair of the department in which the alleged misconduct occurred.
- The chair of the department should review the documentation to ensure that all information is complete and attach any other information that may aid in the investigation of the complaint.
- Once the department chair has verified that the form is complete, if the chair feels that the matter should be investigated further they will sign and date the reporting form before forwarding the form and accompanying documentation to the dean or designate of the college in which the course is offered.
- If the chairs forwards the allegation on for further investigation by the dean or designate, the instructor should make the student aware that an allegation has been submitted. The instructor may share with the student how the investigation is carried out and what the allegation is. For questions related to the procedure and penalties we encourage the instructor to direct the student to the undergraduate calendar. (https://www.uoguelph.ca/ registrar/calendars/undergraduate/current/c08/c08-amisconduct.shtml)
- The dean or designate will conduct an investigation based on the allegations set out in the form, including an interview with the student(s). Once the dean or designate has investigated the matter, a decision will be made. If the allegation of academic misconduct is confirmed, a penalty will be levied in accordance with the Guidelines for Academic Misconduct.

2. Graduate Students:

- If the alleged misconduct is course related, the course instructor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- If the alleged misconduct is research related, the research advisor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- The course instructor or research advisor should forward the completed form and all requested documentation to the chair of the department in which the alleged misconduct occurred. The chair of the department should review the documentation to ensure that all information is complete and attach any other information that may aid in the investigation of the complaint.
- Once the department chair has verified that the form is complete, sign and date the form and forward a copy of the form and accompanying documentation to both the dean or designate of the college in which the course is offered or research is being conducted and the Dean of Graduate Studies or designate. Once the allegation is forwarded along, the instructor should inform the student that an allegation has been submitted.
- The dean or designate and the Dean of Graduate Studies or designate will jointly conduct an investigation of the matter based on the allegations set out in the form. Once the deans or designates have investigated the matter, a decision will be made. If the allegation of academic misconduct is confirmed, a penalty will be levied in accordance with the Guidelines for Academic Misconduct.
