

HOW TO GET TO THE ARBORETUM, UNIVERSITY OF GUELPH

From outside Guelph

From within Guelph

THE ARBORETUM

If travelling from out of town, use the map on the left. From within Guelph use the map on the right. Follow College Avenue to The Arboretum Entrance. The co-ordinates to the entrance are: 43°32'39.06"N 80°12'57.78"W

THE OAC CENTENNIAL ARBORETUM CENTRE

From the Entrance off College Avenue, continue south about 0.3 km to the parking lot on the left. The Arboretum Centre is on the right.

If walking from Campus, take Arboretum Road off East Ring Road to the Kiosk and follow the Ivey Trail or Arboretum Promenade to The Arboretum Centre

THE J.C. TAYLOR CENTRE

At the far (east) end of the large parking lot across from The Arboretum Centre, you can access the Ivey Trail (look for the split-rail fence) which leads to the south corner of Victoria Woods and to the J.C. Taylor Centre.

BY BUS

There is a bus stop across from Arboretum Road on East Ring Road. Follow Arboretum Road to the information Kiosk at the entrance to The Arboretum. Please refer to the Guelph Transit website for bus routes and times
