When you study abroad, anything can happen. The student on our India Field School were granted an audience with His Holiness The Dalai Lama. An amazing experience but one that can teach students about more than just Buddhism, culture and compassion, it also caused them to reflect on their privilege as westerns and their broader experience in India. Read about it on the India Field School Blog. [1]