When you study abroad, anything can happen. The student on our India Field School were granted an audience with His Holiness The Dalai Lama. An amazing expereince but one that can teach students about more than just Buddhism, culture and compassion, it also caused them to refelct on their privledge as westerns and their broader expereince in India. Read about it on the India Field School Blog, [1] or find info on this year's offering [2].
