

INDUSTRY PROFESSIONALS. NETWORKING. FREE ADMISSION. GET INSPIRED.

Inspire North is hosting a free event on Thursday, March 16th, 2016 at the University of Guelph. You will have direct access to distinguished leaders who have achieved success in their chosen profession.

Speaker Line-Up:

John Sleeman - Founder and Chair of Sleeman Breweries

John Sleeman launched his first business, a British-style pub at age 23. After three years, he sold the pub and founded The Imported Beer Company, which successfully grew into a national company. In 1985, he restarted his family's heritage in the Canadian beer industry with original patent, bottles, labels and recipes. He is the recipient of numerous awards.

Janice Holzscherer, CFA - VP & National Head of Agriculture at Scotiabank

Janice Holzscherer joined Scotiabank in 1997 after holding various successful positions within capital markets. As the Vice President and National Head of Agriculture Janice leads a seasoned team of commercial agricultural banking professionals located throughout Canada.

She has a passion for agriculture, is an avid equestrian and resides on a farm in SW Ontario with her family.

Robert Antenore – Partner, McMillan LLP

Robert Antenore is a partner in the firm's Commercial Real Estate Group. Robert's practice covers all aspects of commercial real estate transactions from development to acquisitions and dispositions, including title and lease matters. He acts for national and international financial institutions, commercial real estate companies, asset managers and pension funds.

Admission is free and open to all University of Guelph students. Limited spots are available.
