MA Program

Admission Requirements

The program requires a 4-year undergraduate degree in Sociology, Criminology or Political Science, but students with at least 5 courses in Criminology and/or Public Policy may be admitted as long as these were part of a major in another social science or humanities program. The program requires a minimum of a "B+" average (second place standing) to be considered for admission. Generally, those admitted will have a higher academic average.

Degree Requirements

Students are required to complete 2.0 credits and write a thesis OR complete 3.0 credits and write a major research paper CCJP*6660.

All students must take the following core courses:

CCJP*6100	[0.50]	Governing Criminal Justice
CCJP*6300	[0.50]	Research Methods in Criminal Justice
SOC*6350	[0.50]	Society, Crime and Control

Remaining credits can be fulfilled by taking elective courses, such as Courts CCJP*6000 and/or certain selected courses in Sociology and Anthropology and Political Science (see Courses section below).

Courses

For courses without a semester designation the student should consult the graduate coordinator.

Core Courses

CCJP*6100 Governing Criminal Justice F [0.50]

This course analyzes criminal justice policy and governance of the criminal justice system from applied and theoretical perspectives. Particular attention is paid to the interplay between criminal justice policy and management and the larger political process.

Restriction(s): CCJP students

CCJP*6300 Research Methods in Criminal Justice F [0.50]

This course introduces students to the primary methods, data sources and statistical methods used in criminal justice and criminology research. Particular attention will be paid to the role research and methods and statistics play in shaping criminal justice/criminological theory, research and policy.

Restriction(s): CCJP students or instructor's signature

SOC*6350 [0.50] Society, Crime and Control

Elective Courses

CCJP*6000 Courts W [0.50]

This course examines courts from a variety of political, social, and socio-legal perspectives depending on the interest of the instructor(s). Particular attention will be paid to the role of courts in shaping criminal justice policy through such means as constitutional decisions and sentencing decisions.

Restriction(s): CCJP students. Instructor's signature required if not in the CCJP program

SOC*6070	[0.50]	Sociological Theory
SOC*6130	[0.50]	Quantitative Research Methods
