Bachelor of Applied Arts in Media Studies (BAMS) -Diploma in Media Communications with specializations in Image Arts Digital Communications, Journalism or Public Relations

Media outlets continue to grow and diversify at a tremendous rate across Canada, North America and throughout the world. Information is delivered and shared in ways today that would not have been imagined ten years ago. The public appetite for information fuels this growth, with hundreds of television and radio stations, unlimited internet availability and expanding (and specializing) magazine and newspaper options.

At the University of Guelph-Humber, the Media Studies program allows students to explore these and other emerging trends and to study the historical, social, cultural and ethical dimensions of the field through exposure to courses that challenge them to think, read and write critically. Other courses aim to teach students how to work in a team environment to achieve a goal related to their specialization, such as: producing a newspaper or television broadcast, or promoting and managing a large event, producing a body of photographic work or creating of multi-platform communication vehicles through digital technology.

Specializations are offered in Journalism, Public Relations, Image Arts (Photography) and Digital Communication. Students in all specializations are required to complete 20.00 credits in order to be eligible for graduation: 11.00 core media studies credits, 7.00 specialization credits and 2.00 elective credits. Students must complete these requirements in order to be eligible to graduate with both the university honours degree (awarded by the University of Guelph) and the college diploma (awarded by Humber). No option exists to graduate with only one of the above listed credentials as the program is fully integrated.

Digital Communications (DC)

The pivotal role of the World Wide Web in communication has created a demand for cross-disciplinary specialists who can execute multi-platform communication strategies on behalf of corporations, consulting agencies, government and non-profit organizations. Students in the Digital Communication profile will develop their research, photographic, web design and project management skills as they create content using current software applications such as Photoshop, InDesign, Flash and Fireworks.

Image Arts (IA)

Students in the Image Arts stream are exposed to all aspects of digital and print photography leading to a diploma in Creative Photography. Students study the world of media with a particular focus on visual communication, photographic techniques, and photo-based art practices. An innovative photography lab is available for projects and experiential learning.

Journalism (J)

In Journalism, students have the opportunity to report on local and world events for various types of media. The program features training in writing for newspapers, magazines, and the Internet; it also offers experience in radio and television broadcasting. Students have access to a state-of-the-art broadcast studio and will produce a newspaper and newscast as part of the program.

Public Relations (PR)

The Public Relations stream aims to teach students to become adept at using the media to communicate for business, government, and other organizations. Courses such as Media Relations, Event Management, and Writing for Public Relations offer skills for writing and producing timely and accurate information. Students take part in off-campus ventures for real-world experience in fundraising and event management.

Conditions for Graduation

In addition to meeting all program specific course and credit requirements, students must have a minimum 60% cumulative average in order to be eligible for graduation. Students will not normally be eligible to graduate while on Probationary status or Required to Withdraw status. A student denied graduation while on Probationary status or Required to Withdraw status may submit a request for Academic Consideration to the Academic Review Sub-Committee.

Bachelor of Applied Science (BASc.) - Major Kinesiology - Diploma in Fitness and Health Promotion

Kinesiology is an academic discipline focused on understanding the science of human movement. A thorough examination of human movement entails both the study of how individuals move, as well as the factors which limit and enhance individual movement. Thus, the sub-disciplines of kinesiology include: functional anatomy, physiology, biophysics and biomechanics, motor learning and neural control, biochemistry and nutrition, and fitness and lifestyle assessment. The application of this knowledge base permits improvements in one's ability to move, as well as the development and implementation of strategies aimed at encouraging individuals to be physically active and to adopt healthier lifestyles. Course offerings in exercise prescription, health promotion and health counselling address this application of knowledge. Professionally focused physical and clinical activity practicum courses are also offered in the program curriculum.

The objective of this program is to provide graduates with the knowledge, skills and practical experience necessary for employment in a variety of fitness and health fields, as well as clinical settings. Additionally, upon completion of the program students will be eligible to pursue national certification as a Personal Trainer or Exercise Physiologist, from the Canadian Society of Exercise Physiology (CESP).

In the third and fourth years of the program, students will complete two workplace internships designed to foster the development of transferable skills and familiarize themselves with the structure and function of fitness and health facilities. These placements will provide them with valuable experience and networking opportunities. Throughout their internships, students will participate in weekly seminars that will serve to critically analyze their work experiences.

Students are required to complete 20.00 credits in order to be eligible for graduation: 18.50 core credits, 1.50 general elective options and two non-credit activity practicum courses. Students must complete all requirements in order to be eligible to graduate with both the university honours degree (awarded by the University of Guelph) and the college diploma (awarded by Humber College Institute of Technology & Advanced Learning).

Transfer and Bridge Semester

Holders of the CAAT Fitness and Health Promotion who successfully complete the requirements of the BASc Kinesiology Bridge Semester, including 3.0 specific science, math, kinesiology and elective credits, will be eligible to transfer into semester five of the regular program. A maximum of 5.0 credits may be transferred from the CAAT Fitness and Health Promotion diploma to the BASc degree program. For more information on application to the Bridge Semester, contact Admission Services. For information regarding specific courses in the Bridge Semester, please see www.guelphhumber.ca

Conditions for Graduation

In addition to meeting all program specific course and credit requirements, students must have a minimum 60% cumulative average in order to be eligible for graduation. Students will not normally be eligible to graduate while on Probationary status or Required to Withdraw status. A student denied graduation while on Probationary status or Required to Withdraw status may submit a request for Academic Consideration to the Academic Review Sub-Committee.

Bachelor of Applied Science - Major Psychology (BASc.) - Diploma in General Arts and Science

Understanding why people do the things they do is a goal that has been at the core of the science of psychology for at least the last 125 years. In the Psychology program, students examine theories and research based on the biological and social approaches to human behaviour and cognition.

The primary goal of this program is to prepare students to enter the workforce with the depth of understanding and experience employers are looking for in a wide variety of service, administrative, and industrial fields. Students will have the opportunity to identify an area of emphasis in the upper three years of study. Upon completion of the program, students will receive a university honors degree which will prepare them for a professional career or advanced study at the postgraduate level in a variety of academic disciplines.

Students complete 20.00 credits which includes 9.00 required core psychology credits, 6.00 required credits in liberal arts and sciences, and 5.00 credits in general electives. Out of the 5.00 credits in general electives, although not required, students have the option of taking 2.50 credits in one of three areas of emphasis. Only one area of emphasis can be declared. Students must complete these requirements to be eligible to graduate with both a university honours degree (awarded by the University of Guelph) and the college diploma (awarded by Humber). No option exists to graduate with only one of the above listed credentials as the program is fully integrated.

Areas of Emphasis

Business

This area of emphasis provides students with a deeper understanding of the world of business. Students will be better prepared for careers in Customer Service, Marketing, Advertising and Human Resources. In order to obtain recognition for an area of emphasis, students must take at least 2.50 credits from the listing in that area. Only one area of emphasis can be declared.

Human Services
