Program

New Directions Research Program Information [1]

Description

Through a number of different research programs, OMAFRA funds research in seven theme areas:

1. Agricultural Policy and Rural Development
2. Bioeconomy - Industrial Uses
3. Emergency Management
4. Environmental Sustainability
5. Food for Health
6. Product Development and Enhancement through Value Chain Collaborations
7. Production Systems (Plants and Animals)

The NDRP is a flexible research program and priorities for the program shift annually. This Call for Proposals for a letter of intent is focused on honey bee health. Section three of the Research Requirements Document gives a full description of the honey bee health research priority, the Research Requirements Document can be found on the OMAFRA RMS. The proposal must clearly demonstrate how the research addresses a stated research priority.
