Description

Update: TalentEdge Internship Program

OCE's TalentEdge Internship Program has attracted strong interest and we now have sufficient applications under review to support the remaining internship placements for this fiscal year. You may consider applying when the program intake re-opens in February 2017. Please refer to our website (www.oce-ontario.org [1]) in February for exact dates and any updates to the program requirements.?

Please note that the TalentEdge Data Analytics Internship Program remains open.
