

University of Guelph Internal NOI Form*
NSERC Research Tools & Instruments (RTI) 2022-23

Deadline: September 7, 2022

INTERNAL NOI IS MANDATORY FOR ALL RESEARCHERS WHO WILL BE SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION TO NSERC FOR THE RTI COMPETITION IN FALL 2022.

The University needs to review equipment requests prior to submission to NSERC to maximize resources and minimize duplication. Researchers must submit an NOI form to the Office of Research Services (ORS) by September 7, 2022.

IMPORTANT: Researchers may participate in one application, either as an applicant or co-applicant, not both. Also, applicants and co-applicants who were successful in the previous year's RTI competition will be ineligible to apply this year. Therefore, please ensure that all co-applicants listed on your NOI have confirmed that they are participating on one application only and are eligible. This applies to co-applicants from other institutions as well.

Please forward your complete form to: resserv@uoguelph.ca. These NOI forms will be shared with the Colleges to determine eligibility and subject matter overlap across the University. The information collected is for internal purposes only.
