

International Comparative Rural Policy Summer Institute 2019 Timeline

The 2019 ICRPS Summer Institute will be held in Rovaniemi, Finland from June 16-29, 2019. The 2019 Summer Institute will be hosted by the University of Lapland. Please note, you must be in Rovaniemi on the late afternoon of June 16. As result, you may need to depart a day (or two) earlier to arrive on time. Likewise, you may not return home until a day or two after the final day of the summer institute due to flight schedules and routes.

Key Dates/Timeline

| | |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| October 24, 2019 | SEDRD Speaker Series presentation by Stephen Penner reflecting on the 2018 ICRPS Summer Institute. |
| November 7, 2019 | A general information session will be held about the upcoming 2019 ICRPS Summer Institute. The meeting will be held from 12:00 – 1:00 pm. Students from previous summer institutes will be invited to share their experiences |
| December 1, 2018 | Deadline to submit notice of interest to Dr. Ryan Gibson via email (gibsonr@uoguelph.ca). The notice of interest should be a maximum of 500 words and describe your interests in attending, the connection to your program of study, and connection to future professional ambitions. |
| January 6, 2019 | A selection committee will review notice of interests. All students will be notified at this time. |
| January 30, 2019 | Students selected to attend are required to make a financial deposit to confirm their attendance. |
| June 16 – 29, 2019 | Summer Institute in Rovaniemi, Finland! |