

Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers 2014-2015

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014-2015 Study and Development Fellowships.

This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

2014-2015 Fellowship awardees are (in alphabetical order):

- Gregory Denton - College of Arts, School of Fine Art and Music (W15)
- Raphael Djabaty - Guelph Humber, Justice Studies (F14)
- Lawrence Murphy - College of Arts, Bachelor of Arts and Science (W15)
- John Saville - College of Physical and Engineering Science, School of Computer Science (F14)
- John Walsh - College of Arts, School of Languages and Literatures (F14)

Through the 2014/15 Study/Development Fellowships Sessional Lecturers will be engaged in scholarly activities which include curriculum design, learning objectives, pedagogical innovations related to large class size, and the development of applets, interactive lecture demonstrations and other online exercises which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs.

We sincerely thank all applicants for their interest in this program and once again congratulate all of the recipients.
