Study and Development Fellowships for Sessional Lecturers 2016-2017

The Associate Vice President (Academic) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2016-2017 Study and Development Fellowships. This program, established by the Provost, in consultation with CUPE 3913 (the Union which represents Sessional Lecturers), enables long-service Sessional Lecturers to maintain and enhance their quality as scholars.

We congratulate our 2016-2017 Fellowship awardees (in alphabetical order):

- John Ferguson, Sociology and Anthropology: “An Ounce of Prevention: Environment, Advocacy, Teaching & Change”
- Shirley Hall, School of Environmental Design and Rural Development (Landscape Architecture): “Making creative thinking and learning visible through the use of student reflections about design thinking in a First Year Design Studio – applications for across the curriculum?”
- Joseph Sobara, School of Fine Art and Music: “Community-based drum set education development and diversification project”
- Zoe Zhu, School of Computer Science and School of Engineering: “Intelligent Water Resource Engineering”

Through the 2016/17 Study/Development Fellowships Sessional Lecturers will be engaged in scholarly activities which will enhance excellence through their subsequent contributions to the teaching programs.
