PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Q13 Please briefly describe your proposed program and outline the goals.

Q14 How often and for how long will your program run? (i.e. one class/week for 12 weeks starting in September).

Q15 How many staff and/or faculty will have the opportunity and are anticipated to participate?

PROGRAM ALIGNMENT

Q16 Which of the following three priority elements of the Wellness@Work Initiative does your initiative align with? (select all that apply)

Definitions of priority elements:
Physical Well-being

Physical well-being focuses on the physical health and safety of employees as well as the physical environment at both the workplace and any remote locations offsite. Physical well-being is not just the absence of disease. It includes lifestyle behavior choices to ensure health, avoid preventable diseases and conditions. This includes: occupational/environmental health and safety; control of physical risks and hazards; secure environment/personal safety; built environment; accessibility; workspace; healthy lifestyles; and infectious disease control. If your grant program is supporting physical well-being it should only be supporting "healthy lifestyles", as the other components of physical well-being such as occupational/environmental health and safety, built environment, accessibility, and workspaces, should be built into your department's operating budget and there are mechanisms to support these aspects of physical well-being.

Psychological Well-being Psychological well-being focuses on creating a work environment that fosters promotion and protection of employee mental health. A culture that puts people first and promotes supportive, inclusive, and respectful practices throughout the organization are key to fostering psychological well-being. Culture is created, reinforced, and sustained by ongoing patterns of relationships and communications that are known to have an important influence on psychological and physical health and safety. An organization's values are reflected in its culture, such as the University's values of community & collaboration, courage, creativity, excellence, inclusion, and integrity. This also refers to the 13 psychosocial factors that affect employee psychological health and safety including: Organizational Culture; Psychological and social Support; Clear Leadership & Expectations; Civility & Respect; Psychological Demands; Growth & Development; Recognition & Reward; Involvement & Influence; Workload Management; Engagement; Balance; Psychological Protection; and Protection of Physical Safety.

Social Well-being Social well-being focuses on both the personal and professional relationships that employees have within their work community. Positive connections, skill development, and strong supports are pivotal to supporting social well-being. This includes additional components such as: sense of belonging and connectedness; engagement; collaboration and knowledge sharing; and communication.

- Physical Well-being
- Psychological Well-being
- Social Well-being

Q17 Please describe how your proposed program aligns with our Wellness@Work Initiative. (Wellness@Work strategic plan, Our Time: University of Guelph Strategic Plan Priority 5: Supporting Faculty and Staff Success and/or the Okanagan Charter). Ensure you specify how it aligns with the priority element of physical, psychological, and/ or social well-being that was selected above.

Q18 What are the anticipated health and/or wellbeing benefits of your program or idea? Why would participants in your department/group or unit benefit from the proposed initiative?

Q19 NEEDS ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

Q19 What type of needs assessment or consultation has been done to verify interest in this program?

- Survey or poll (could include Wellness@Work survey results)
 - Team discussion or brainstorming
 - Literature review
 - Direct observation
 - Focus group or interviews
 - Other (please describe)

Q20 How did you determine that this is the best initiative for your staff / faculty / instructors' well-being needs? Please explain.

Q21 How will you evaluate the success of your initiative? What will success look like?

Q23 PROGRAM SUSTAINABILITY

Q22

This funding is intended to be one time seed funding. Please describe commitments/efforts to ensure ongoing support for this program after the funding has been used.

Examples include embedding new wellness practices into departmental/program culture moving forward, revenue generating ideas, commitment from leaders to match/co-fund the program, ideas for how to keep health promoting programs alive, etc.

Q23 Would you be willing to share your program offerings more broadly with the campus community? How might you embed this into the larger Wellness@Work initiative to benefit all staff and faculty?

Q33 LEADER ENDORSEMENT

Q24a Is your direct supervisor aware and has approved your proposed grant program?

Yes (1)

Q24 Please ask your AVP or Dean to share how they plan on supporting this program and ensuring its sustainability moving forward.

How will they help embed this into your departmental culture?

This can be emailed separately if required to wellnessatwork@uoguelph.ca.
