GUELPH CENTRE FOR URBAN ORGANIC FARMING

The farm is located off of College Avenue East in Guelph and provides produce to Hospitality Services for cooking. You are able to volunteer at the GCUOF. GCUOF volunteers are involved in every stage of production from seed starting and bed preparation to harvesting for market.

HEALTH AND PERFORMANCE CENTRE (HPC)

The HPC specializes in diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of sports and activity-related injuries. You can visit practitioners such as chiropractors, physiotherapists, dieticians, massage therapists and more on your very own campus!

MCLAUGHLIN LIBRARY

The library is not just for academic articles! Your U of G card serves as your library card and you have access to books for leisure reading, video streaming services, media studio equipment rentals and more!

ATHLETICS

All employees have access to a subsidized U of G Athletics Membership. The NRG Fitness Membership allows the member access to the Athletics Centre for some recreational activities as well as the Fitness Centre and Fitness Classes.

LOOKING FOR MERCH?

Visit the Bookstore or Gryph's Locker if you are looking for U of G apparel and merchandise. When you use your U of G Express Plus Credit Account you will receive 10% off your purchase!

NEED A BITE TO EAT?

U of G has many amazing places to eat or even get catering for your events!

Located in the University Centre on the second floor, Brass taps is your campus pub is the source for great daily food and beverage selections, intimate concert performances, and dynamic special event hosting.

Hospitality Services has all your food choices covered with lots of delicious options for all dietary needs all across campus. In addition to all the dining halls, Hospitality Services offers casual and full service catering.

Situated in the heart of the University of Guelph campus, this renovated cattle ring has been turned into a café, complete with comfy couches, fair trade, organic coffee and a diverse affordable menu served by friendly student staff.
