

Faculty and Staff Interested in making a difference? Now Recruiting for Leave for Change

Leave for Change participants volunteer their talents and skills with Uniterria partners in developing countries. Costs of participating are covered, all you need to contribute is your vacation time.

“The basis of positive change throughout the world is people talking to people and exchanging knowledge and skills. Certainly the Leave for Change program is an excellent example of that.”
-Greg Boland, UofG, L4C, 2010
