

JOIN THE POPPIES OF REMEMBRANCE, UNITY & COMMUNITY PROJECT

Help create a large crocheted poppy installation for Remembrance Day — a meaningful campus project with the U of G Serving Scholars that fosters connection, community, and the mental health benefits of crocheting.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

Attend a Workshop!

- 🧶 All skill levels welcome – no experience needed!
- 🧵 Free materials provided
- 🍪 Light snacks & refreshments included
- 💡 Led by two-time U of G alum and crochet instructor, Linda Adams
- 🕒 Workshop opens with Linda's demo & guidance; come and go anytime.

Make your own Poppies!

- Create poppies on your own time
- Use your own materials or rent a DIY kit from Lang & Engineering Makerspaces
- Learn online—YouTube has you covered!
- Finished poppies? Drop them off at Alumni House, Lang or Engineering Makerspaces
- Any and all contributions are welcome!
- Last day to submit poppies is Oct 16

UPCOMING DATES

Aug 19 - 11am - 1 pm, THRN 1365 (Engineering)

Aug 21 - 11am - 1 pm, LANG Makerspace

Sept 30 - 11am - 1pm, LANG Makerspace

Oct 1 - 11am - 1pm, THRN 1365 (Engineering)

Registration required. Limited space.

Register Here

Project questions? Contact:

Melissa Woo at melwoo@uoguelph.ca or

Linda Adams at lmsadams05@gmail.com

